DEAFNESS AWARENESS INFORMATION

for Individuals

Are you ready to learn really useful information about Deaf people?

This workshop is for everyone who needs to know how to understand and interact with Deaf people.

Deafness Awareness Information

What is Deafness Awareness Information all about?

Deafness Awareness Information is designed to improve understanding of communication and communication methods within the workplace.

In this information session you will learn about:

- Deaf Community
- Deaf Culture
- Communication
- Technology
- Health and Safety

Objectives of the Workshop:

- ✓ To develop awareness of individual differences that exist amongst deaf people, the factors determining these differences and how to respond effectively to these differences.
- ✓ To increase understanding and use of alternative communication methods when interacting with Deaf / hard of hearing people.
- ✓ To develop a basic knowledge of Deaf Culture.
- ✓ To have some awareness of Occupational Health and Safety for Deaf people in the workplace.

Question: Do you know your ABC's?

How much?

The full fee for Deafness Awareness Information is $55 per person (including GST)

Each participant will receive a booklet.

The workshop is provided in various locations throughout Queensland. See timetable attached.

You have TWO choices:

1. Attend a Deafness Awareness Information session

Attend a fun-filled 2 hours with no pressure on information about Deaf people and how to understand and interact with them (namely your customers, clients, staff and friends)

2. Go on with life as usual

Where you will have no exposure to useful information about Deaf people and possibly have great difficulty when Deaf customers and clients come and see you.

YOU DECIDE!
