

The 2011 Deaf Australian Youth of the Year Award

In memory of Dorothy E. Shaw, OAM

1. The Deaf Australian Youth of the Year Award is open to any Deaf person residing anywhere in Australia.
2. Only individual Deaf people may be nominated.
3. The Award is one-off – i.e. an individual Deaf person can win the Award once only. An individual can be nominated many times but once they have won the Award they cannot be considered again for the Award in any subsequent year.
4. A nominee must be recognised for his/her dedication, services and contribution towards the Australian Deaf Community.
5. The nominee must be a person who is aged under 25 years, and who makes exceptional contributions in one or more of the following areas:
 - Develops programs and activities aimed at supporting Deaf youth
 - Supports Deaf people in social and cultural activities
 - Presents a positive image of Deaf people
 - Undertakes research programs to promote better understanding of the Deaf community, its language and culture
 - Establishes successful co-ordination of affirmative action aimed at Deaf people
 - Provides high quality services enabling Deaf people to participate in community activities
 - Provides programs to increase options and opportunities for Deaf employees and clients
 - Improves access to technology
 - In any other way has benefited Deaf people or the Deaf community.
6. Nominations may be made by:
 - Any person who is an Ordinary member of Deaf Australia.
 - Any Organisation which is a National Ordinary Corporate member of Deaf Australia.
 - State branches of Deaf Australia.
7. A completed nomination form for each nomination must explain the reasons why the Deaf person is being nominated. This nomination is necessary to allow the Award panel to make their decision.
8. The nomination must have a colour passport size photograph of the nominee attached to the form. Please attach the photograph in .jpg format if sending via email or without staples if sending via post.

9. Nominations can be submitted in written English or in Auslan.
10. The Board of Deaf Australia will appoint a Convenor to form the Deaf Australian Youth of the Year Award panel. This panel will consist of:
 - the Convenor, who will be a member of the Board of Deaf Australia;
 - members of the Deaf Culture and Arts experts group of Deaf Australia and who have not either submitted a nomination or been nominated.
11. The panel will review nominations and select the best nominee for the Award.
12. The closing date for nominations is Friday, 9th September 2011. Entries must be received at the Deaf Australia office by 5.00pm on that day.
13. Nominations received after the closing date will not be considered.
14. Nominations may be faxed to the office of Deaf Australia. However, the original nomination must also be sent by mail. A faxed nomination received by the closing date will only be considered if the original is also received within one week after the closing date.
15. Nominations may be sent by email to Deaf Australia at info@deafau.org.au Emailed nominations are preferred.
16. The decision of the Award panel will be final and no correspondence will be entered into.
17. The announcement of the Award winner will be made by the President of Deaf Australia, or the Convenor of the Award panel, or some other person as determined by the Board of Deaf Australia.
18. The Award will be presented during Deaf Australia's Annual General Meeting on 11 November, in Adelaide, Sth Australia.
